

Nursing Leadership Award

New this year, The Nursing Leadership Award builds on the themes of patient-centred care and nursing leadership, and whose recipient demonstrates an ongoing commitment to excellence in these areas.

THE AWARD

The winner will receive an etched glass trophy, and will be invited to make a presentation at the annual National Healthcare Leadership Conference.

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered for this award, a nominee must be a nurse employed at the Director or Vice President level who has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to quality and leadership in nursing. They seek to advance nursing at every level, to remove barriers between providers and to build systems of quality care for patients. The programs that they have delivered have resulted in a measurable improvement to their organization's excellence. They have displayed their leadership qualities both within, and outside, their organization.
